DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does it look like when you find your confidence and joy in what God has done?
2. How has God used suffering in your life as a tool for perseverance, character, and hope in your life? Why can we rejoice in the middle of trials?
3. We live for events to prove to us that God loves us (such as feeling good, life going well at the time, no breakdowns, great health, relationships, jobs, kids, etc). However, once things go bad, we think God doesn't love us. How does Jesus' death on a cross prove to us that God loves us? (Do you remember the things Robin preached about that are proofs of God's love?)
4. For what reasons can a believer rejoice? What things can we rejoice in?
5. Here's a big one: How can the truths of this section of scripture affect your relationship with God? with other believers? with other non-believers?
