Romans 6:1-5

MESSAGE NOTES

Two reasons why our baptism should be a defining moment for us:

1. Our baptism represents the culmination of all that Jesus has done for us.

Romans 1:16-17

Romans 3:10-12

Romans 3:21-26

Romans 5:1

Romans 6:1

2. Our baptism represents the physical expression of our spiritual union with Jesus (Rom. 6:1-5).

Bottom Line: Our baptism should be THE defining moment that determines every other moment that is to come.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What would you consider to be some “defining moments” for you?
2. Spend time looking back to see the gospel story Paul is telling:

Romans 1:16-17

Romans 3:10-12

Romans 3:21-26

Romans 5:1

3. What is the question Paul seems to be asking in Romans 6:1? Put it in your own words.
4. In what ways have you been tempted to ask the same question?
5. How does Paul answer this question in the following verses?
6. What does it mean to be united with Jesus in our baptism?
7. In what ways can you better live as if your baptism is THE defining moment in your life?
8. If not baptized, would you consider taking the next step of faith? If so, we invite you to contact the C3 Front Office (office@cartervillechristian.com) to set up an appointment with one of our Elders or Pastors.
